WELCOME TO KULM HOTEL

The Kulm Hotel St. Moritz is undeniably an icon in the realm of luxury hotels. Since its establishment in 1856, it has garnered an unparalleled reputation for excellence and top-notch service. Its long-standing history and influence on the development of luxury tourism in the Alpine region make it a true gem.

The concept of quiet luxury is fascinating – the hotel offers a luxurious lifestyle based on discretion, privacy, elegance, and a subtle yet top-tier experience. This understated sophistication and focus on excellence without ostentatious elements make the Kulm Hotel a unique destination for discerning and still joyful travelers.

Kulm Hotel undoubtedly remains a landmark for those seeking a blend of tradition, modernity and unparalleled, awarded service.

We are proud partner of Leading Hotels of the World, Swiss Deluxe Hotels, Virtuoso and AMEX Fine Hotels & Resorts.

YOUR WAY UP

The journey to St. Moritz offers its own unique experience, whether you opt for the UNESCO World Heritage route by train, traverse the majestic Alpine passes by car, or arrive in style and comfort via a chic and effortless private jet.

For the most convenient route in winter, we suggest arriving in Zurich by airplane. The journey from Zurich to St. Moritz is optimal, taking less than 3 hours by car or 3.5 hours when traveling by train. For all guests we offer a complimentary pick-up-service from the train station.

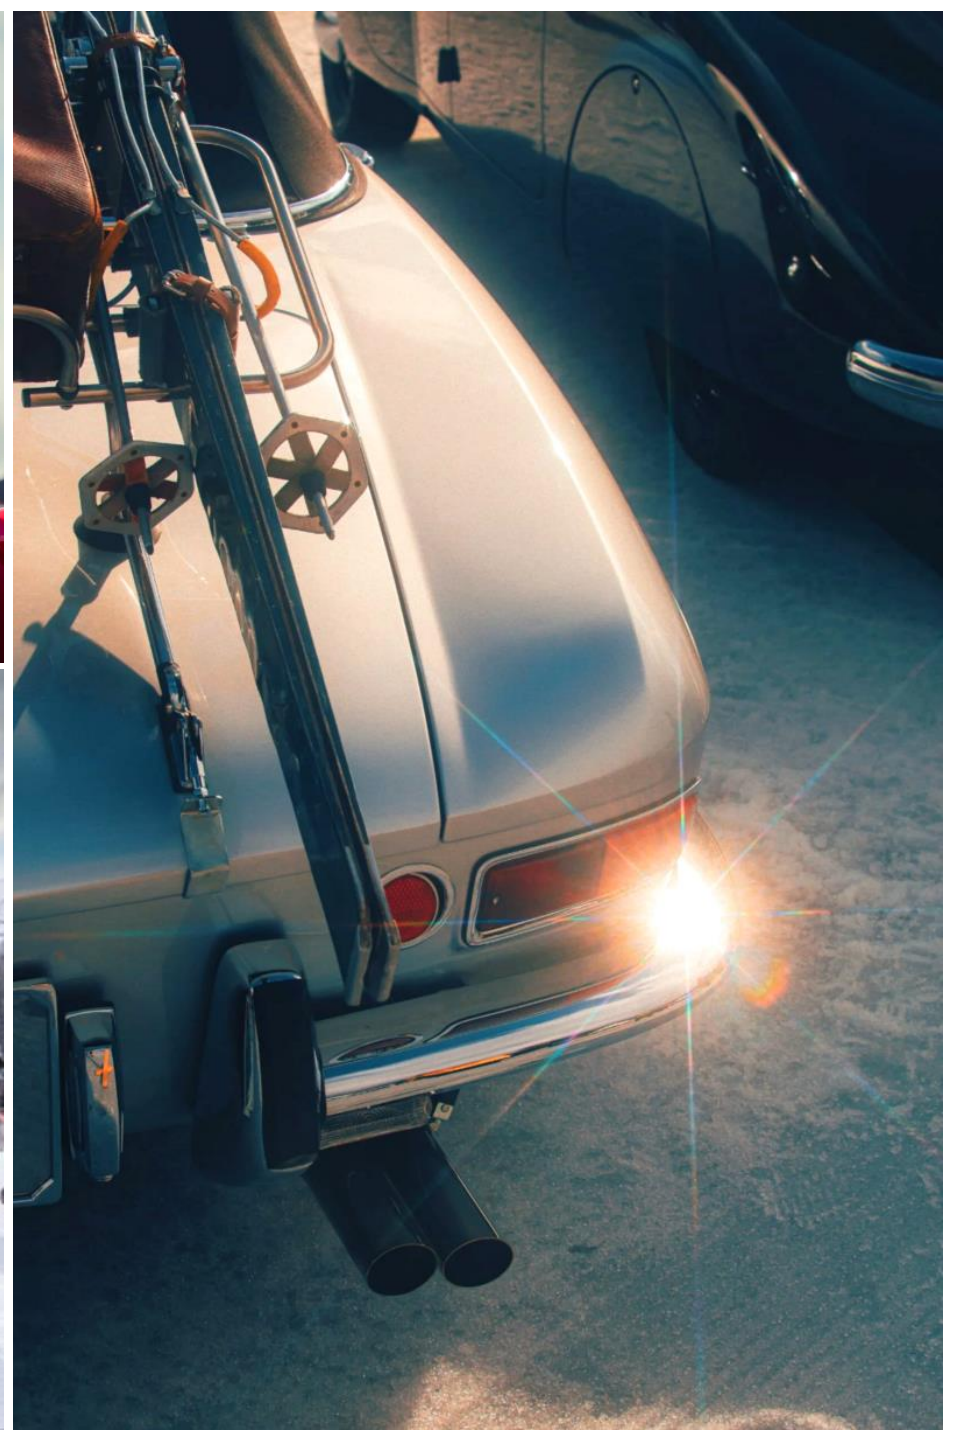

During the summer, the route from Milan offers a breathtaking and diverse experience, accessible solely by car. A detour to Lake Como comes highly recommended for all travelers, while navigating the winding roads of the Maloja Pass builds excitement for the Engadin high valley, perched at an elevation surpassing 1,800 meters above sea level.

OUR HISTORY

THE HOTEL THAT MAKES WINTER

The Kulm Hotel St. Moritz, established in 1856, holds a venerable legacy as the village's first hotel. It ignited the flame of winter tourism and birthed sports like Cresta, bobsleigh, skeleton, and skiing.

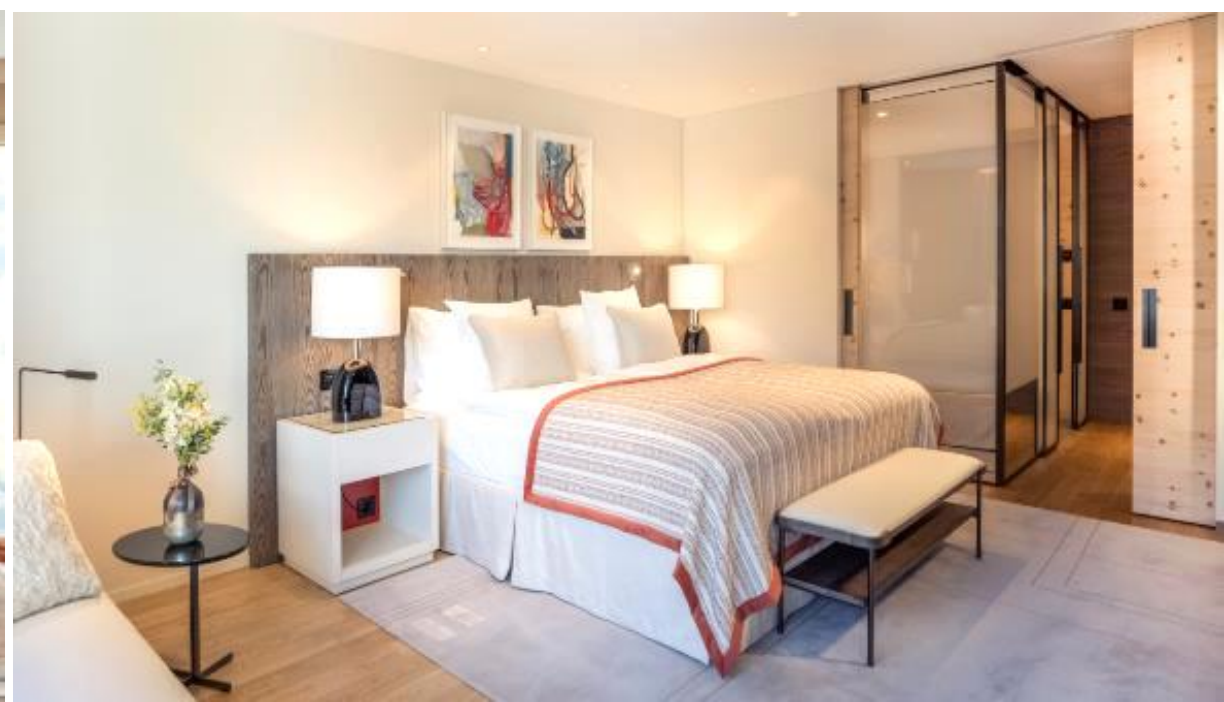

A truly extraordinary facet in global history unfolds with the Kulm Hotel, where the stage was graced not once, but twice, by the grandeur of the Olympic Winter Games in 1928 and 1948.

Today, its pioneering spirit continues to shine, etching an unforgettable mark on St. Moritz's history and global prominence.

THE SUITES

THE SUITES AND ROOMS

Redesigned to celebrate the scenery by acclaimed French architect and interior designer Pierre-Yves Rochon, our suites and rooms are a picture of Alpine elegance, comfort and mesmerising mountain views.

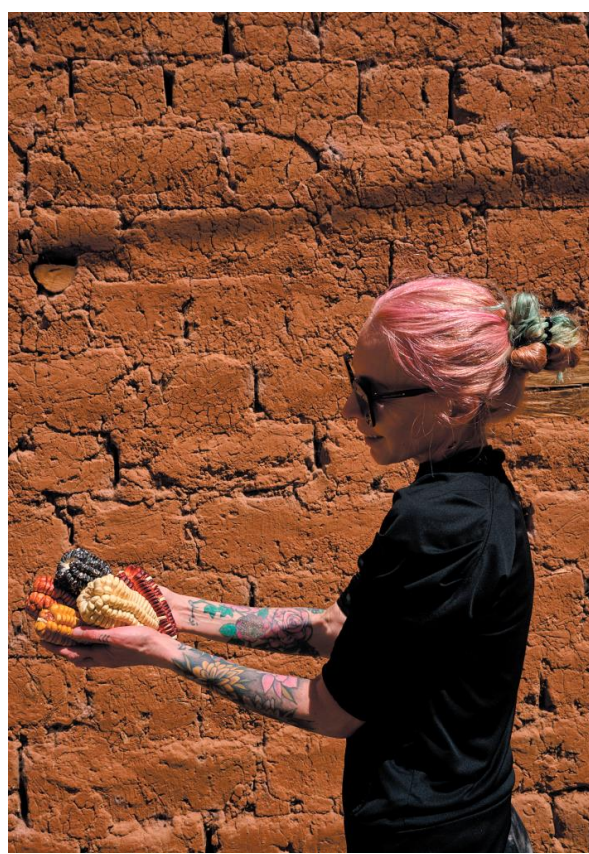

Expect light, bright spaces with local stone and pine, moments of sumptuous textiles in rich tones, and luxurious marble bathrooms – overlooking the Engadin valley and town of St. Moritz.

The majority of 150 rooms (thereof 56 suites) have been renovated over the last five years.

VERY IMPORTANT KIDS

The image shows two baby pacifiers resting on a white towel. The pacifier in the foreground is pink and has a white circular sticker on its shield with the text 'Kulm Hotel St. Moritz VIP BABY'. Behind it is a white pacifier with a similar sticker. To the left, a clear plastic water bottle is partially visible, tied with a grey ribbon. The background is a blurred hotel room.

VIK - VERY IMPORTANT KIDS

With our kids programme, dedicated children's menus, babysitting services and all-new Wunderwald activity and adventure center, our action-packed children's offering encourages play, growth and connection with nature.

The programme is only for our guest's children and includes, among other things, free snowboard and ski lessons in the group, free golf and tennis lessons as well as free hot chocolate or ice cream.

HIGH POINTS

HIGH POINTS – BESPOKE SERVICES

The Kulm Hotel embodies unparalleled excellence in hospitality. It is therefore no surprise that our illustrious concierges have been awarded the prestigious "Concierge of the Year" award in Switzerland in 2021 and 2023. This unprecedented accolade is a testament to their tireless dedication and shines a glowing light on their unsurpassed commitment to orchestrating exceptional guest experiences.

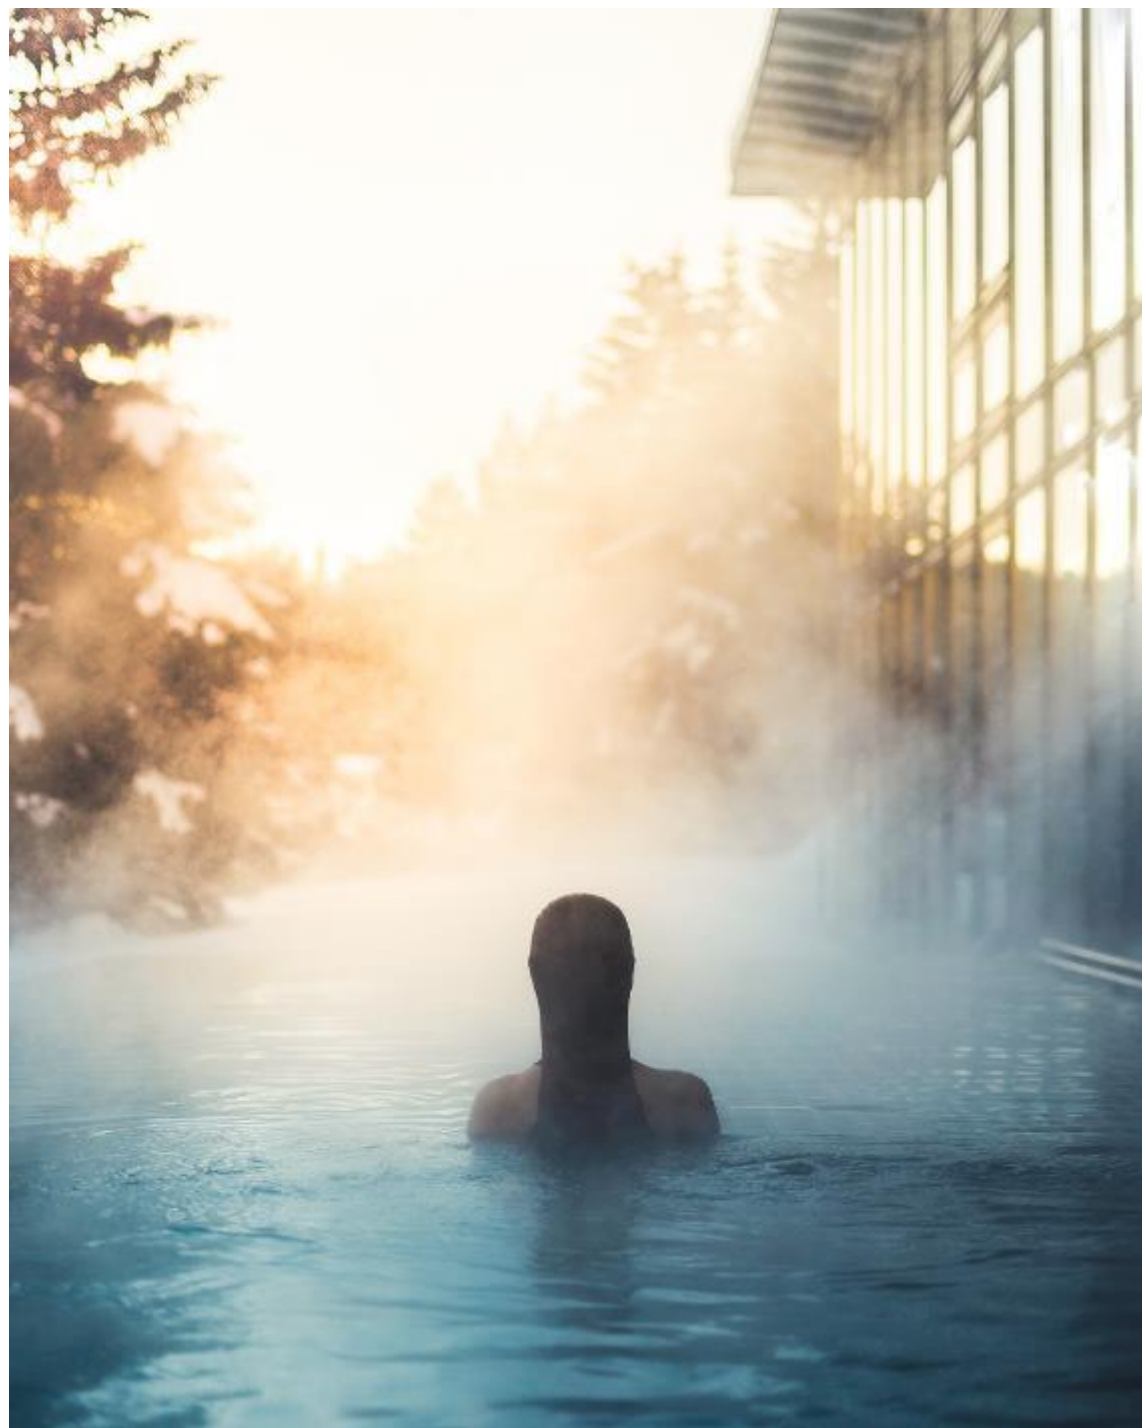

Furthermore, we present our guests with a bespoke programme (High Points) that unveils uncharted doors to the beauty and traditions of the valley.
