WELCOME TO GRAND HOTEL KRONENHOF

We look forward to welcoming you soon at our historic hotel.

The Grand Hotel Kronenhof in Pontresina is situated in close proximity to St. Moritz (10 minutes by car). As the only 5-star hotel in the Engadin valley, it is open from mid-June to early April.

The autumn season is highly recommended when nature begins a play of colors and the forests turn yellow, orange and red and the mountain peaks are cloaked in white for the first time.

We are a proud partner of Swiss Deluxe Hotels and Serandipians.

175 YEARS

GRAND HOTEL KRONENHOF'S HISTORY

Affectionately known as the "Grand Dame," Hotel Kronenhof cherishes a remarkable legacy of over 175 years in hospitality, an unparalleled presence in the valley. The hotel's essence is imbued with the grace of neo-baroque aesthetics, which is reflected in the dedication to detail - be it in terms of interior design as well as in the daily services provided to our guests.

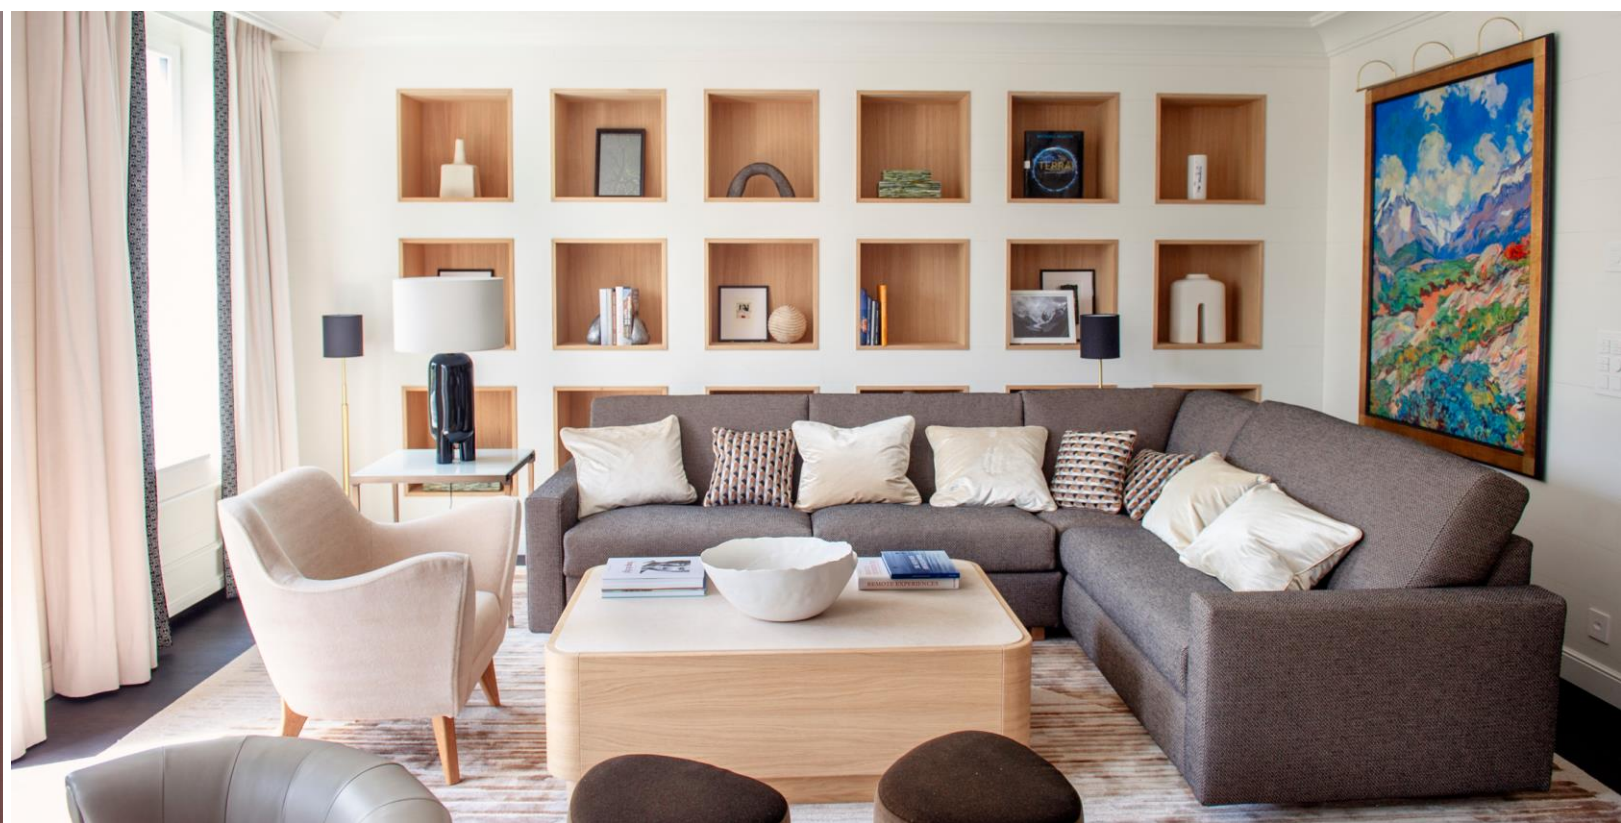

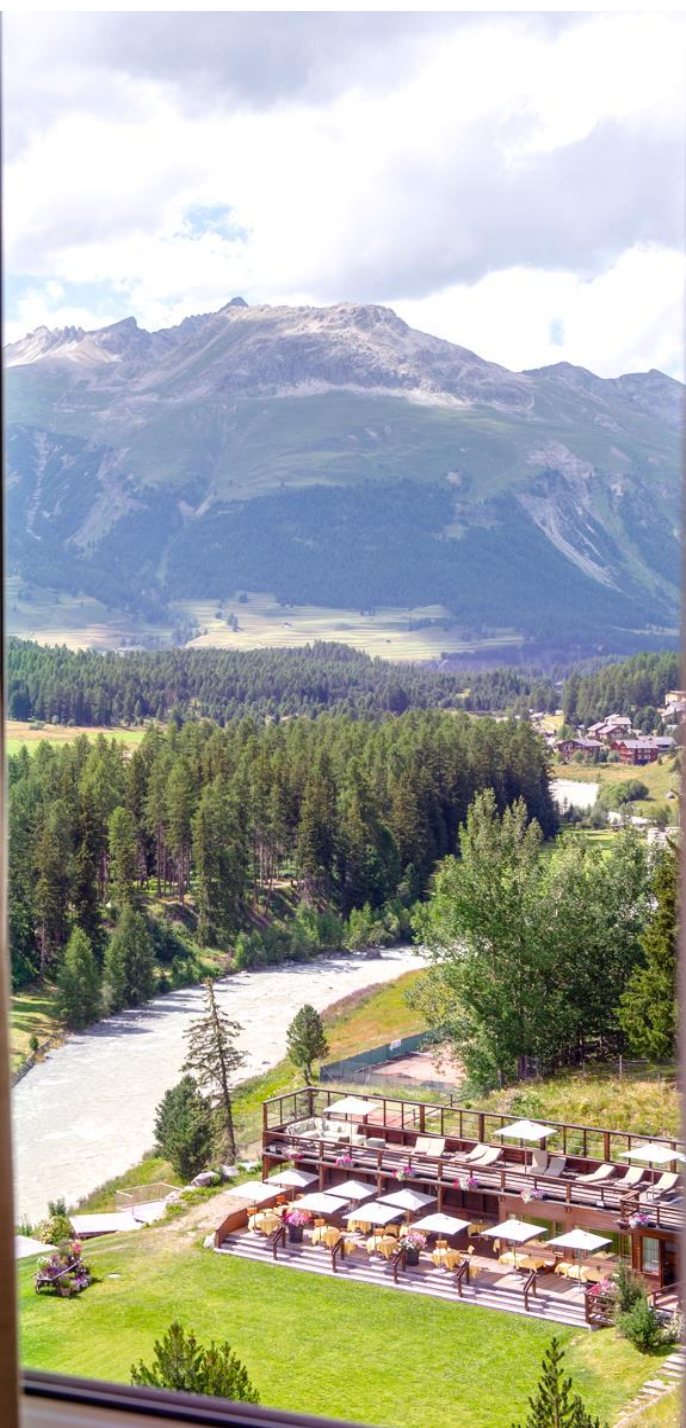

This symphony of meticulous details crafts an atmosphere of unique distinction, elevating it to a realm all its own.

THE SUITES

THE SUITES AND ROOMS

The suites and rooms reflect the hotel's neo-baroque style and modernity and are furnished with great attention to detail.

The majority of our 112 suites and rooms have undergone continuous renovation in recent year and offering a breathtaking panorama of mountains, glaciers, forests and the traditional and famous Engadin village Pontresina.

CULINARY HIGHLIGHTS

CULINARY HIGHLIGHTS

Indulge in a culinary voyage at Grand Hotel Kronenhof. The Grand Restaurant offers a timeless ambiance and international cuisine influenced by French and Italian flavors. Kronenstübli combines Italian-mediterranean and french cuisine provided in an Alpine atmosphere. Lastly, Engadine's gem, Le Pavillon, serves local and regional delicacies. Each dining encounter harmonizes flavor and artistry, a genuine pleasure in an exquisite, classic backdrop.

During the Afternoon Tea, guests assemble at the Lobby or for a treat following their exploration of Engadin's wilderness at Le Pavillon. And of course, a visit to our renowned bar is essential to unwind and enjoy a drink, capturing the essence of relaxation.

WELLBEING

WELLBEING

The Kronenhof Spa spans 2,000 sqm, inviting guests to immerse in its tranquil embrace. Enveloped by Swiss pine, larch forests, and the Roseg glacier, it seamlessly brings nature indoors

Indulge in relaxation with swimming pool, whirl pool, Finnish sauna, stone grotto, steam bath, saltwater grotto, bio sauna, and a Kneipp footbath.

A haven to harmonize body and soul.

KID'S CLUB

VERY IMPORTANT KID

KID'S CLUB

The Grand Dame is a hotel much appreciated by families. With our Kid's Club, special children's menus, babysitting services and an activity and adventure centre, we make every child's heartbeat faster and parents can enjoy their holiday even more.

Our action-packed children's offering encourages play, growth and connection with nature.

The programme is only for our guest's children.

An aerial photograph of the Engadin valley in the Alps. The scene is dominated by dense, dark green forests covering the valley floor and lower slopes. In the distance, several lakes are visible, reflecting the light from the sky. The mountains are rugged and partially covered in snow, with some peaks shrouded in mist or low clouds. The sky is filled with large, white and grey clouds, with sunlight breaking through, creating a dramatic and atmospheric effect. The overall tone is serene and majestic.

ENGADIN

ENGADIN VALLEY

The Engadin, renowned for its lakes, mountains, and captivating light, is a Swiss Alpine high valley on 1'800 meters above sea level that mesmerizes with its diversity of art, sport and culture. Its tranquil lakes mirror the surrounding peaks, creating a serene backdrop for outdoor enthusiasts. Towering mountains embrace charming villages, each with a unique character. The interplay of light across the landscapes paints a vivid tapestry of nature's beauty, making the Engadin a captivating haven for both relaxation and adventure.

A captivating juxtaposition to the effervescent and opulent aura of St. Moritz - yet, these two locales harmonize flawlessly, each enhancing the other's allure.

A person wearing a racing helmet and gear is leaning into a turn on a track. The helmet is black with a blue anchor logo and the word "WATER" on it. The person is wearing a white shirt with "VICTOR" written on it. The track is a light blue color with a yellow and purple logo that says "JEL" and a compass rose. The background is a blurred view of the track curving into the distance.

ACTIVITIES

ACTIVITIES

It's not merely the work of human hands, but rather the divine gift that draws guests to the Engadin. The unique nature, with its glaciers, mountains, lakes, forests, and the extraordinary light, holds an irresistible allure.

Throughout history, St. Moritz and the valley has been renowned for winter sports, yet the summer and autumn unfolds boundless opportunities to explore the treasures of the valley.

EVENTS

EVENTS

Our winter, summer and fall seasons are a whirlwind of concerts and cups, rallies and races, art festivals and feasts. From Engadin Ski Marathon, White Turf horse races and Snow Polo World Cup on the frozen lake, to amateur golf championships and trail running weekends, traditional local Laret market to the St Moritz Art Film Festival and the classical Engadin Festival and Festival da Jazz.

St. Moritz and the Engadin valley host worldwide exclusive events for guests who cherish art, culture, sports and lifestyle. No other place in the world can offer such diversity and quality.
