

The image shows a symmetrical floor plan of a restaurant, divided into two identical halves by a central vertical corridor. Each half contains a kitchen area at the top, a dining area in the middle, and a bar area at the bottom. The kitchen area features three rectangular tables, each with two small square tables underneath. The dining area has three large rectangular tables, each with four small square tables on two sides. The bar area consists of three long rectangular tables, each with two small square tables on one side. The central corridor has a small opening at the bottom. The text 'Maraner - Stube' is centered in each half.

Maraner - Stube

Maraner - Stube